We deeply respect the Aboriginal Community of Bunnerong upon whose land our parish resides.

Reflection: Today's parable is similar to the one of the Prodigal Son, is a great one for animated debate. Generally we tend to think that "the good son" is badly done by, as in today's story, we feel that the workers, who have toiled all day, deserved to be paid more than the ones who came late in the afternoon.

But let us look at the statement "He (the owner) made an agreement with the workers for one denarius a day." There was no argument, no haggling – those early workers were obviously happy with the arrangement, so what right had they to challenge the owner's decision to pay everyone the same amount? The punch line is the statement by the owner "WHY BE ENVIOUS BECAUSE I AM GENEROUS?" The message for us is clearly that God is more loving, generous, and forgiving than we human beings could ever imagine. The goodness of God knows no bounds, so let us thank Him for not being like us – so often too quick to decide what is right and fair for others.

After 6 weeks away, I've had cravings for: Vegemite! I thought it appropriate to interrupt my 'Spiritual Retreat' to go in search of this most iconic of Australian flavours! The venture was both expensive and successful! First a long walk, then into a taxi driven by an angry drunk man, whose father, (whom he constantly called BASTARDO) was a N.Z. Maori, who deserted the family when he was 5. Just my luck with this driver. No road rules that I can make out—even for those who are sober! We survived, and with 2 small jars of this liquid gold, made it back safely. If you include the taxi fare, plus purchase, each jar of Vegemite cost roughly $40! Warmest love Michael

Summary: Social Justice Statement 2017–2018

Everybody's Business: Developing an inclusive and sustainable economy

Pope Francis has called for an economic system that places men and women at the very centre – one that meets the needs of all people and is just and sustainable. He denounces economic structures that take a purely utilitarian view of human beings, treating them as mere elements of production, to be thrown away if they are not seen as useful or productive.

The Australian Catholic Bishops' Social Justice Statement for 2017–18 is titled 'Everyone's Business: Developing an inclusive and sustainable economy'. The Bishops call for an economy that is founded on justice and offers dignity and inclusion to every person.

The Bishops' Statement is built around the Gospel for Social Justice Sunday, 24 September 2017. Jesus tells the parable of the workers in the vineyard, where all are active contributors and are recognised for their human dignity.

Australia has experienced a quarter of a century of continuous economic growth, but the benefits of this good fortune have not been distributed equally. In our workplaces, conditions and security of employment have been eroded, while those who are unemployed subsist on incomes well below poverty levels. Australia is experiencing a housing crisis. And our Indigenous brothers and sisters struggle with economic and social burdens that most Australians cannot imagine.

In the light of these challenges, the Statement calls us to build an economy founded on true solidarity with those who are most vulnerable. Such a society will reject an 'ideology of the market' that forgets the principles of justice and equity. Justice must be built into the very foundations of our community, and business can work for everybody's benefit, not just for shareholders. The excluded and vulnerable must have a voice in decision-making. God is calling us to use his bounty wisely, for the good of all and of our planet.

Eco Tips for September

- Turn off the lights and TV when you are not in the room.
- Use cloth napkins instead of paper napkins.
- Use organic products for the lawn instead of chemicals.
- Pull weeds instead of spraying with chemicals.
- Don't leave water running while brushing your teeth or doing dishes.
- Use old T-shirts as rags for cleaning, dusting or wiping up spills. Try to eliminate paper towels.
- Ask your family to walk, bike, or ride a bus whenever possible.
- Shop at the farmer's markets in the summer. Buy local produce whenever possible.
- Always recycle oil.

THIS WEEK'S GOSPEL – Matthew 20: 1-16

Jesus said to his disciples: 'The kingdom of heaven is like a landowner going out at daybreak to hire workers for his vineyard. He made an agreement with the workers for one denarius a day, and sent them to his vineyard. Going out at about the third hour he saw others standing idle in the market place and said to them, "You go to my vineyard too and I will give you a fair wage." So they went. At about the sixth hour and again at about the ninth hour, he went out and did the same. Then at about the eleventh hour he went out and found more men standing round, and he said to them, "Why have you been standing here idle all day?" "Because no one has hired us" they answered. He said to them, "You go into my vineyard too." In the evening, the owner of the vineyard said to his bailiff, "Call the workers and pay them their wages, starting with the last arrivals and ending with the first." So those who were hired at about the eleventh hour came forward and received one denarius each. When the first came, they expected to get more, but they too received one denarius each. They took it, but grumbled at the landowner. "The men who came last" they said "have done only one hour, and you have treated them the same as us, though we have done a heavy day's work in all the heat." He answered one of them and said, "My friend, I am not being unjust to you; did we not agree on one denarius? Take your earnings and go. I choose to pay the last-comer as much as I pay you. Have I no right to do what I like with my own? Why be envious because I am generous?"

Thus the last will be first, and the first, last.'

Lord, we commend to you people in need:
